THE COURT REPORT

Defendant Adrian Dion Wade, of the 1300 block of Canal Street, S.W. plead guilty to possession with intent to distribute crack cocaine, selling crack to an undercover police officer and committing a felony while on release in another case. The prosecution filed enhancement papers based on Wade's prior drug convictions, which double the maximum sentence that he can receive. Sentencing will be before the Honorable Robert Rigsby on December 15, 2005. (Case Nos. F-6497-04 and F453-05; PSA 104)

In the possession with intent to distribute case, members of the Metropolitan Police Department's First District Focus Mission Unit were conducting an observation post operation in the unit block of O Street, SW, on October 19, 2004, when they observed the defendant produce a baggie, retrieve some small items from inside the baggie, and hand them to another individual. The defendant retrieved the small items, placed them back into the baggie, and placed the baggie inside of the rear of his underpants. When the police arrested and searched the defendant, they found $901 and the baggie, which contained 47 smaller Ziploc baggies of crack cocaine.

In the distribution case, members of the MPD Major Narcotics Branch were conducting a buy-bust operation on January 22, 2005 in the 1300 block of Half Street, SW. An undercover officer discussed the purchase of cocaine with the defendant. The defendant then handed the officer a Ziploc baggie of cocaine in exchange for $20 of currency with serial numbers that the police had previously recorded. The undercover officer provided a description of the defendant to an awaiting arrest team, which moved in and apprehended the defendant, who was still in possession of the $20 of prerecorded funds, plus an additional $283. The defendant committed this felony while on release in the aforementioned possession with intent to distribute case.

Defendant Woodrow Rose, 48 originally of Sumter, South Carolina, plead guilty before Judge Judith E. Retchin to First Degree Sexual Abuse while Armed and Assault with a Dangerous Weapon. The defendant faces up to 24 years of incarceration when he is sentenced by Judge Retchin on December 9, 2005. He will also be required to register as a sex offender for the rest of his life. (Case No. F-4598-05; PSA 102)

According to the government's evidence, the defendant and the victim – his girlfriend of six years – spent the evening of August 11, and early morning hours of August 12, 2005, at a Northwest restaurant. Upon returning to the victim's apartment, the defendant began accusing the victim of having sex with other men. Despite her denials, the defendant punched the victim in the face several times. He then physically assaulted the victim by slicing her with a razor blade. The defendant told the complainant that the next time she had sex with another man; she could show the other man her scars. The defendant obtained a knife and pliers and further assaulted the victim. While the victim lay on her bed bleeding, the defendant forced her to engage in sexual intercourse. The defendant ultimately fell asleep and awoke only upon arrival of Metropolitan Police Department officers.

Defendant Anthony Brawner was previously convicted of unauthorized use of a vehicle, kidnapping while armed, first-degree sexual abuse, third-degree sexual abuse, carjacking while armed, first degree sexual abuse while armed and possession of a firearm during a crime of violence. The defendant escaped from prison and was later returned to custody. Sentencing in the Escape case will be before Judge Erik Christian on December 22, 2005. (Case No. F-3521-04; PSA 107)

The defendant asked the Corporal, who was in the security post, to take the trash out. Unbeknownst to the Corporal, who knew that the defendant was a “detail inmate” or trustee, at the time defendant approached him, he was actually wearing civilian clothes that he had taken from the Receiving and Discharge Area of the jail underneath his fluorescent orange prison jumpsuit. The Corporal permitted defendant to walk, unescorted, to the trash area. The defendant then went to the first floor of the jail, took off his jumpsuit in a “blind spot” that cannot be observed by guards in a nearby guard station, or “bubble,” and then mingled with two civilian attorneys who were being escorted out of the D.C. Jail by another Corporal. The Corporal noticed the defendant behind him, realized that defendant was not with his party, and asked an Officer, who was standing nearby, whether the defendant was with her. The Officer replied that defendant was not. The Corporal had the Office escort the two attorneys out of the jail while he dealt with defendant.

The Corporal, who initially thought that defendant was a civilian, asked the defendant for his identification. Defendant replied that he had lost it. The Corporal then asked defendant for any identification at all; defendant stated that he did not have any. The Corporal asked the defendant where he worked, and defendant stated that he worked in the Medical Unit. The Corporal instructed defendant to come with him up to the Medical Unit so that his identity could be verified by Medical Unit personnel. Defendant took a few steps and then took off running. The Corporal chased defendant, and ultimately was cornered on the third floor, near the Medical Unit. Defendant was convicted of Escape after a three-day trial.

Defendant Calvin Missouri, 42, of the 700 block of 18th Street, N.E., Washington, D.C., was sentenced to 20 years of incarceration on the charge of aggravated assault while armed for his provoked, daylight attack on an ice-cream deliveryman in February 2004. He was sentenced before the Honorable Hiram Puig-Lugo of the Superior Court of the District of Columbia. (Case No. F-1132-04; PSA 103)

The crime occurred on February 17, 2004, at approximately 1:00 p.m. The defendant approached the victim, a 30-year-old man who was delivering ice cream to a convenience store, located in the 1800 block of Benning Road, NE, Washington, D.C. The defendant, who was a complete stranger to the victim, displayed a knife and demanded the victim's cell phone, but gave him no chance to respond before he attacked. The victim avoided the defendant's repeated stabs only by grabbing the defendant's arm and attempting to stop or redirect the blows. After a one-on-one struggle, the victim was able to break free of the defendant and run away. The defendant chased the victim approximately 75 yards down an alley and around a corner into a parking lot area. After cornering the victim behind a shopping cart, the defendant attacked again and forced the victim to the ground and repeatedly stabbed at his chest with the knife. The victim deflected some of the blows with his arms, resulting in defensive wounds to the underside of the victim's forearms. However, the defendant succeeded in stabbing the victim in the chest and back four times. The defendant halted his attack only when a neutral, concerned citizen heard the victim screaming, and approached and intervened. After several other persons also approached and assisted, the defendant gave up his attack and left the scene. Before leaving, in full view of those who had come to assist the victim, the defendant sliced open the victim's pocket and grabbed the victim's cell phone. At the urging of bystanders on the scene, the defendant threw a cell phone back at the victim before fleeing.

Police collected extensive evidence of the defendant's guilt, which included a confession by the defendant to an independent witness, identifications of the defendant by two eyewitnesses who were present at the scene, blood stains on the coat worn by the defendant during the offense which DNA testing revealed to be that of the victim, and a statement which the defendant gave to the police in which he admitted that he was on the scene, but alleged that another person had actually performed the stabbing.

Defendant Roland Thomas, 39, of the 2200 block of U Place, S.E., Washington, D.C. , was sentenced on September 30, 2005, in D.C. Superior Court, before the Honorable Erik P. Christian. The defendant was sentenced to 60 months of incarceration to be followed by three years of supervised release. (Case No. F-5526-04; PSA 102)

The government's evidence showed that on September 1, 2004, at approximately 1:00 p.m., the complainant, a 46-year-old mentally challenged man, left his home and walked a couple of blocks to a convenience store at 1101 H Street, NE, where he purchased several "scratch-off" lottery tickets. He won $25,000, and began announcing his good fortune to others inside the store, including the defendant, whom he had never met. As the store manager was validating the winning ticket and explaining to the complainant that he needed to take it to the D.C. Lottery Board offices located at 14th and U Streets, NW, to receive his check, the defendant offered the man a ride to the Lottery Board. He also offered to help him to cash in his winning ticket. The complainant said no to both, then left the store and began to walk home to tell his mother about what had happened. The entire sequence in the store was captured on the store's video surveillance camera.

In order to get home, the complainant decided to cut through an alley in the 700 block of 10th Street, NE. When he emerged from the alley, the defendant pulled up in a dark-colored SUV, jumped out, approached the complainant, then punched him in the chest and snatched the winning lottery ticket from his hand.

Immediately after the robbery, the complainant went home and told his mother about all that had happened to him, and she called the police. Police immediately contacted the D.C. Lottery Board, who agreed to contact them if anyone attempted to cash the complainant's ticket. Within a short time, the defendant's wife and neighbor arrived at the Lottery Board's offices and attempted to cash the ticket. As police detained them, the defendant was located outside the building, waiting for his wife and neighbor to emerge with the stolen proceeds. Following the defendant's arrest, the complainant was reunited with his $25,000 ticket, which he then cashed.

Defendant Arthur Bigesby, 25 was sentenced by Superior Court Judge Harold L. Cushenberry, Jr. to 18 years of incarceration and three years of supervised release for assaulting a D.C. Jail prison guard. Bigesby was convicted by a Superior Court jury on June 23, 2005, of aggravated assault. Aggravated assault is ordinarily punishable by a maximum sentence of ten years under the statute, but following the filing of repeat offender papers by the government based upon the defendant's prior felony convictions, the Court enhanced Bigesby's sentence to 18 years of incarceration. (PSA 107)

The government's evidence at trial demonstrated that, on March 23, 2004, at approximately 2:30 p.m., in the Southeast-Three Unit of the District of Columbia Central Detention Facility, or D.C. Jail, a correctional officer was placing inmates in their cells as part of the afternoon count procedure. She was attacked from behind by the defendant, an inmate, who strangled her with his right arm until she lost consciousness. The defendant continued strangling her even after she lost consciousness.

DISTRICT COURT CASES

Anthony M. Stewart, 34, of Suitland, Maryland, was sentenced on September 26, 2005, to 18 months in prison by United States District Judge Paul L. Friedman on Stewart's prior guilty plea to aiding and abetting an honest services wire fraud offense. The charge relates to Stewart providing fraudulent documents to his parole officer and others, which falsely represented his employment with the Department of Agriculture. Stewart's sister, Theresa Stewart Freeman, was employed with the United States Department of Agriculture at the time.

According to the government's evidence presented at the plea hearing and agreed to by Stewart, a part of Ms. Freeman's employment duties was to verify the employment of personnel at the Department of Agriculture in response to inquiries from outside the Department. At all relevant times, Stewart was not employed. He was, however, on parole for a conviction in Superior Court in Washington, D.C., and a condition of his parole was that he maintain employment. If he failed to do so, his parole potentially could be revoked and he could be incarcerated for not complying with his terms of parole.

In May of 2003, Stewart stopped reporting to his parole officer. The parole officer then contacted Ms. Freeman, as Stewart's purported supervisor, in an attempt to locate him. At that time, Ms. Freeman fraudulently represented to the parole officer that Stewart was on leave without pay from the Department.

This fraud scheme came to light on June 26, 2003, when Metropolitan Police Department detectives were trying to locate Stewart to arrest him on a warrant in an unrelated matter. In the process of trying to locate Stewart, the police determined that he had submitted pay stubs to his parole officer showing that he was working at the Department of Agriculture. When the police contacted the Department of Agriculture about these pay stubs, they found that the pay stubs were fraudulent.

Stewart's sister, Ms. Freeman, previously pled guilty to a honest services wire fraud charge in this matter and was sentenced by Judge Friedman to three years of probation, which included a requirement that she perform 100 hours of community service. Ms. Freeman resigned from her employment with the Department of Agriculture in January of 2004.

Wyatt Wood, 42, of the 1200 block of Florida Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan to a term of 188 months in prison following his earlier guilty plea to federal drug trafficking charges. On April 19, 2005, Wood pled guilty to Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute 50 grams or more of Methamphetamine, also known as "Ice," Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute Five Kilograms or More of Cocaine, and Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute a detectable amount of 3,4-Methylenedioxy Methamphetamine, also known as “Ecstasy.”

The evidence proffered by the government at the sentencing hearing established that, between January 1999 and November 22, 2004 (the date of Wood’s arrest), Woods utilized several sources to supply him with large quantities of Ice, cocaine, Ecstasy and other designer drugs. Additionally, Wood employed a number of individuals to distribute the designer drugs as well. Wood was held responsible for the distribution of 60 kilograms of Ice, 5.5 kilograms of cocaine, and 4 kilograms of Ecstasy. He additionally possessed with the intent to distribute large quantities of Ketamine, Marijuana, Clonazepam, d-Pseudoephedrine hydrochloride and Gamma Butyrolactone, (GBL) and Gamma Hydroxybutyrate (GHB).

Wood’s sentencing represents the culmination of a four-year joint effort by a task force which resulted in the successful prosecution of more than 30 defendants to whom Wood supplied designer drugs. Moreover, this task force had seized more than one million dollars in assets from Wood. The joint investigation, initially designated as “Operation Tina Town,” was a joint DEA, MPD and Arlington County effort that became part of a larger national initiative lead by the DEA, and was referred to as “Operation Wildfire.” Operation Wildfire was a nationally coordinated law enforcement initiative designed to (1) target all levels of the methamphetamine manufacturing and distribution chain in the United States and (2) continue the fight against the spread of methamphetamine. The unprecedented law enforcement effort involved over 200 U.S. cities and resulted in the arrest of 427 individuals.

Antonio C. Bras, 62, of Olney, Maryland, was sentenced on October 20, 2005, in U.S. District Court before the Honorable Colleen Kollar Kotelly to a 37-month term of imprisonment for conspiring to commit bribery and federal highway fraud in connection with Bras’s role in distributing cash bribes to District of Columbia Department of Public Works officials in exchange for the DPW officials agreeing to accept inflated job tickets for asphalt materials that were never provided to the District. U.S. District Judge Kollar Kotelly also fined BRAS $7,500. Bras entered his guilty plea in 2003 following the government’s presentation of evidence at trial before a federal jury. This investigation – started in 1997 and known as “Operation Hotmix” – resulted in the criminal conviction of three construction companies and twelve individuals including nine District of Columbia DPW employees.

Fort Myer Construction Corporation (“FMCC”) was a Virginia corporation, which engaged in road construction projects in Washington and elsewhere. FMCC entered into contracts and subcontracts with other prime contractors with the District of Columbia Department of Public Works (“DPW”) and others to repair and resurface roads. Pursuant to these contracts and subcontracts, FMCC agreed to charge DPW and others for labor and material actually used in the performance of its contracts. Antonio C. Bras was employed by defendant FMCC as an asphalt superintendent and was a management official of FMCC. FMCC’s Asphalt Division was responsible for, among other things, oversight of FMCC’s obligation to deliver the proper amounts of asphalt to its crews at DPW job sites. (FMCC entered a separate guilty plea in March 2003, before Judge Kotelly to conspiracy to bribe DPW officials. FMCC was fined $300,000, ordered to pay $300,000 in restitution, and entered into a separate $300,000 civil settlement.)

Wyatt Wood, 42, of the 1200 block of Florida Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C., was sentenced on October 17, 2005, in U.S. District Court by Chief Judge Thomas F. Hogan to a term of 188 months in prison following his earlier guilty plea to federal drug trafficking charges. On April 19, 2005, Wood pled guilty to Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute 50 grams or more of Methamphetamine, also known as “Ice,” Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute Five Kilograms or More of Cocaine, and Conspiracy to Distribute and Unlawful Possession with Intent to Distribute a detectable amount of 3,4-Methylenedioxy Methamphetamine, also known as “Ecstasy.”

The evidence proffered by the government at the sentencing hearing established that, between January 1999 and November 22, 2004 (the date of Wood’s arrest), Woods utilized several sources to supply him with large quantities of Ice, cocaine, Ecstasy and other designer drugs. Additionally, Wood employed a number of individuals to distribute the designer drugs as well. Wood was held responsible for the distribution of 60 kilograms of Ice, 5.5 kilograms of cocaine, and 4 kilograms of Ecstasy. He additionally possessed with the intent to distribute large quantities of Ketamine, Marijuana, Clonazepam, d-Pseudoephedrine hydrochloride and Gamma Butyrolactone, (GBL) and Gamma Hydroxybutyrate (GHB).

David Johnson, 35, of the 4900 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, a former employee of the D.C. Public School’s Transportation Division, pled guilty on October 12, 2005, in U.S. District Court to operating a bribery scheme with a D.C. government clerk. In pleading guilty, Johnson acknowledged that he paid money to Tonette Cooks, a teller formerly employed by the D.C. Office of Finance and Treasury (“OFT”) and working for the D.C. Bureau of Traffic Adjudication, in exchange for Cooks falsely recording that various automobile tickets and fines had been paid in full. Cooks, 30, formerly of the 4800 block of Fort Totten Drive, NE, pled guilty to bribery on October 21, 2003. Both Cooks and Johnson are now pending sentencing before United States District Judge Gladys Kessler.

As part of his plea, Johnson admitted that he operated as a “middleman,” collecting numerous “customers” and their bribe money, and providing Cooks with the tickets or fines to be fixed and delivering to her a portion of the bribe money. A second “middleman” with whom Cooks worked, Sherry McKnight, 41, formerly of the 3000 block of Stanton Road, SE, pled guilty on October 17, 2003, to participating with Cooks in the bribery scheme. On April 28, 2004, McKnight was sentenced to 46 months of incarceration. Johnson admitted that his actions resulted in a loss amount of over $30,000.

Bruce A. Schiffer, 34, of Washington, D.C., pled guilty on October 14, 2005, in Federal District Court to one count each of using his computer to advertise, transport, receive and possess child pornography. The sentencing date will be February 9, 2006, before the Honorable Paul L. Friedman.

During the plea hearing, Schiffer admitted to charges contained in an indictment handed down on June 9, 2005. The indictment alleged that Schiffer advertised, transported, received and possessed the child pornography that forms the basis for the charges. By operating his personal computer as a file server, Schiffer allowed selected files to be downloaded and uploaded by the public from and to his computer respectively. He also advertised on specified Internet relay chat (IRC) channels a willingness to receive or distribute files. Schiffer advertised his file server on the "100%preteenboysexcpics" IRC channel, making available to the public a collection of approximately 11,000 image and movie files of child pornography and erotic depictions of children over the course of about five months beginning on or about Sept. 1, 2004 and continuing until on or about Jan.14, 2005. Among the items seized from Schiffer's bedroom pursuant to a search warrant, were several computers; a large quantity of storage media, including videotapes, CDs, DVDs and floppy disks, a clown suit; and two boxes of catalogued correspondence between Schiffer and roughly 160 prison inmates, the vast majority of whom had either sexually assaulted or murdered children.
